

The Thirteen Colonies Project Evaluation

Name: _____

Colony: _____

Category	Possible Points	Points Earned
Quality of Research – depth of information, range of details, relevance of facts, and balance of sources	15
Accuracy of Research – correct use of historical facts and fulfillment of all guiding research questions	10
Visual Choices – relevant and creative choice of images, maps, pictures, and/or drawings to support the key pieces of information	15
Effectiveness of Language – dynamic use of short, crisp bullets and appealing phrases to highlight the colony’s unique aspects	15
Visual Design – appropriateness of template, value of colors, clarity of pictures, legibility of text and images, and sequencing of details	10
Works Cited – full and appropriate list of electronic research urls and / or books for all facts and images at the end of presentation	10
Educational Value – richness of quality in teaching others about the historical events and the colony’s distinctive elements	15
Effort in Process – initiative, focus, and attention during class time (and also home time, when and where appropriate)	10
Total	100	